

GUIDE TO THE GAME

AUTISM ACCEPTANCE

AUTISM ACCEPTANCE MATCH AT RED BULL ARENA!

We hope that this “GUIDE TO THE GAME” will make you more comfortable about your big day at the arena. As you will see, there’s no reason to be SCARED OR ANXIOUS, Red Bull games are supposed to be lots of FUN! Keep clicking to find more about what you can expect on APRIL 9TH AT RED BULL ARENA!

ABOUT THE PATH & HARRISON STATION

This can be a loud, crowded and busy place. If this bothers your ears, be prepared before you get off the train. It's okay to use earplugs or earphones. Keep your head up and stay close to your family and friends. Look for the door to go downstairs, and exit to the street. There will be plenty of workers directing people towards the arena!

RED BULL ARENA HOME OF THE NEW YORK RED BULLS

Here's what Red Bull Arena looks like from the outside. This is where you'll be spending your fun day with your friends and family at the AUTISM ACCEPTANCE match!

BEFORE THE MATCH

The Red Bulls have a special outdoor area in front of Red Bull Arena for fun and games called THE BULLEVARD. The BULLEvard will be quiet for the first hour. Also, music in the arena will be lowered.

DURING THE MATCH

Quiet Zones and Sensory Rooms will be offered throughout the arena and Sensory Sacks will be available at Guest Services. They will include headphones, poppers, stress balls and wristbands!

DURING THE MATCH

The most exciting play – and when Red Bull Arena will be the loudest – might be when the Red Bulls score a goal! When the Red Bulls score a goal, music will play and everyone will stand up and cheer. You should too! And don't worry – it won't be too loud for too long. The fans will wave flags to celebrate.

HAVE FUN!

The most important thing to remember while you are at Red Bull Arena is this: Red Bulls MATCHES are meant to be fun! You should be comfortable and enjoying yourself with your friends & family.

If there is a problem or you feel anxious or frustrated, please tell someone. Our staff is here to assist our fans if need be.
